

Must

We use must not to say that we feel sure something is not true. We use must to say that we feel sure something is true.

Lo usamos no cuando estamos seguros de que algo no es cierto. Lo usamos para decir que estamos seguros que algo es cierto.

Pronoun	Must		Main verb
	Positive or negative	Verb	Verb –ing
I	must (not)	be	looking / seeing
He/she/it	must (not)	be	doing / cooking
We/you/they	must (not)	do /get/ know / have	N/A

Andrew used to live close to the airport. It must have been noisy all the time.

Chelsea had many friends. She must have enjoyed the party.

Exercises

A young girl jumped off the bridge. She _____ her bones. (break)

Rachel isn't coming to her dance lessons. She _____ sick. (be)

Ted lost his job last month. He _____ to pay his utility bill. (struggle)

