

If I do... and if I did...

When you imagine a situation that will probably not happen, you say if I did. The meaning is not past. When you think there is a possibility of something you use if I do.

Usamos if I did cuando pensamos que algún inconveniente no se va a presentar. Cuando creemos que algo va a presentarse usamos if I do.

If Heidi had a job, she would buy an air conditioner for her living room.

Would you mind if I smoked?

If he drank too much coffee at night, he wouldn't sleep until 4AM.

If you went to the fitness room three times a week, you would grow big muscles.

They would be hurt if Cecilia didn't go to her godparents' shop.
