

Would

We use would when we think of something that is not real.

Lo usamos cuando pensamos que algo no es real.

Robert would have gone to the mall if he'd had internet on his mobile phone.

Ivonne said you would give him his phone number.

We use would have (done) when we imagine situations or actions in the past. We often use would in sentences with if. You can also use would when you talk about things that happened regularly in the past.
